The head of a dividend-earning civic enterprise ought not to be expected to be a diplomatical. His duty is to manage the business matists. His duty is to manage the business mot to manage the aldermen. The business was found as to the nature of the work is a permanent affair, in which the money of the work is a permanent affair, in which the money of the state public creditors, the reputation of the public representatives, and the good faith of public representatives, and the good faith of public representatives, and the good faith of public ownership will be extended. If it is ucceede by the aid of wise and sound business methods, before them at the elections. It is hardly public ownership will be extended. If it fails, a reaction will necessarily follow. The arguments—not despicable arguments, eithers from the individualistic standpoint would, with wise management of the municipal utility, by the management of the municipal utility, by the management of the municipal utility, by the stands of the following the propersion of organised labour. The competents in positions where they may wreek a public enterprise will not meet with the approbation of organised labour.
